In this Guide, words importing any one gender shall include the other gender, and the singular shall include the plural, unless the context indicates otherwise.
2. INTRODUCTION

Section 32(1)(a) of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996, determines that everyone has a right of access to any information held by the State. Section 32(2) of the Constitution provides for the enactment of national legislation to give effect to this fundamental right. PAIA is the national legislation contemplated in section 32(2) of the Constitution.

Section 9 of PAIA recognises that the right of access to information is subject to certain justifiable limitations aimed at, amongst others:

(a) the reasonable protection of privacy;
(b) commercial confidentiality;
(c) effective, efficient and good governance.

Section 14(1) of PAIA stipulates that the Information Officer of the Public body must compile a manual in at least three official languages containing information on the Public Body for public consumption. The purpose of this manual is to inform the public about the records held by the DEA (the public body in terms of PAIA) and how to obtain access to them.

3. PARTICULARS IN TERMS OF SECTION 14 OF PAIA

3.1 Functions and Structure of the DEA [Section 14(1)(a)]

The Mandate

The mandate and core business of the DEA is underpinned by the Constitution and all other relevant legislation and policies applicable to the government, such as the Batho Pele principles. The DEA’s specific mandate is derived from the following:

- Cabinet and Ministerial directives and policy decisions;
- Environment Conservation Act (Act 73 of 1989);
- National Environmental Management Act (Act 107 of 1998);
• National Environmental Management: Air Quality Act (Act 39 of 2004);
• National Environmental Management: Biodiversity Act (Act 10 of 2004);
• National Environmental Management: Integrated Coastal Management Act (Act 24 of 2008);
• National Environmental Management: Protected Areas Act (Act 57 of 2003);
• National Environmental Management: Waste Act (Act 59 of 2008);
• World Heritage Convention Act (Act 43 of 1999);
• Sea-shore Act (Act 21 of 1935);
• Sea Birds and Seals Protection Act (Act 46 of 1974);
• Dumping at Sea Control Act (Act 73 of 1980);
• Antarctic Treaties Act (Act 60 of 1996); and
• Approximately 25 international conventions

Vision

A prosperous and equitable society living in harmony with our natural resources.

Mission

Providing leadership in environmental management, conservation and protection towards sustainability for the benefit of South Africans and the global community.

Departmental Values

Driven by our Passion as custodians and ambassadors of the environment we have to be Proactive and foster innovative thinking and solutions to environmental management premised on a People-centric approach that recognises the centrality of batho-pele, for it is when we put our people first that we will serve with Integrity, an important ingredient in a high Performance driven organisation such as ours.

Strategic Objectives and Key Focus Areas

In line with our vision of creating a prosperous and equitable society living in harmony with the natural environment, the department provides leadership in environmental management, conservation and protection towards sustainability for the benefit of South Africans and the global community.
The department aims to effectively manage the interface between the environment and development so as to stimulate and maximise the potential for economic growth in the environment sector. Our key strategic goals include:

- Protection, conservation, enhancement and sustainable utilisation of environmental assets;
- Providing leadership on climate change action;
- Promoting skills development and employment creation by facilitating green and inclusive economic growth; and
- Creating a better Africa and a better world by advancing national environmental interests through a global sustainable development agenda.

The top priority areas for the department over the medium term include:

- Providing support to local government in the areas of air quality management, waste management, biodiversity management, coastal planning and open space planning;
- Strengthening compliance and enforcement activities;
- Drawing linkages between climate change, the green economy and sustainable development;
- Aligning governance systems with the new Outcomes Approach, paying particular attention to ensuring that environmental assets and natural resources are valued, protected and continually enhanced; and
- Focusing on key national and international engagements.

The department’s programmes are aligned with the government’s Outcomes Approach, especially having environmental assets and natural resources that are well protected and continually enhanced and the related outputs: reduced green house gas emissions, climate change impacts and improved air / atmospheric quality; sustainable environmental management and protected biodiversity.
Organisational Structure of the DEA

The DEA’s structure consists of seven core branches and two transversal support service branches. The core branches, with their respective responsibilities, are:

BIODIVERSITY AND CONSERVATION
- Protected Areas Systems Management
- Biodiversity Planning Management
- Biodiversity Economy and Sustainable Use
- Specialist Monitoring Services

CHEMICALS AND WASTE MANAGEMENT
- Hazardous Waste Management and Licensing
- General Waste and Local Government Support

In terms of PAIA, the Head of the Department (Director-General) is the Information Officer for the Department. She has duly authorised the officials listed below as Deputy Information Officers to ensure that the requirements of PAIA are administered in a fair, objective and unbiased manner:

(a) Deputy Director-General: Corporate Management Services

(b) Deputy Director-General: Legal, Authorisations and Compliance Inspectorate
3.3 Section 10 Guide on how to use PAIA

The South African Human Rights Commission (SAHRC) has in terms of section 10 of PAIA, compiled a guide on the use of PAIA. This guide is available in each official language at the following venues.

- Government Communications and Information Services (GCIS)
- All places of legal deposit (State libraries)
- Every tertiary institution (Universities and Universities of Technology).

The guide is also available on the website of the SAHRC at http://www.sahrc.org.za

It is also available for public inspection during office hours at the offices of the SAHRC at the following address:
3.4 Requests for access to information [Section 14(1)(d)]

Everyone has the right to request access to recorded information held by the DEA, subject thereto that the request is made on the prescribed form and that the prescribed fees are paid. Access is also subject to the grounds of exclusion found in Chapter 4 of PAIA. The request may be made by anyone who acts in their own interests or acts on behalf of someone who cannot do so themselves.

Procedure for requesting records

Form

A requester must complete the prescribed form which-
(a) can be found in the Regulations to PAIA;
(b) is on the website of the SAHR at www.sahrc.org.za;
(c) is attached to this document as Annexure A; or
(d) is obtainable from the DEA’s information centre.

Process

(a) The request for information must be submitted to:

Director-General
Private Bag X 447
PRETORIA
0001

Attention: Office of the Director General
Tel. 012 310 3047
Fax 012 322 4832
PAIA@environment.gov.za

(b) The requester must also indicate if he or she would like to obtain a copy of the record or would like to inspect the record at the offices of the DEA. Alternatively, if the record is not a paper copy document, it can then be viewed in the requested form, where possible [s 29(2)].

(c) If a requester asks for access in a particular form, then he or she should get access in the manner that has been asked for. This principle applies, unless doing so would interfere unreasonably with the running of the DEA, or damage the record, or infringe a copyright not owned by the state. If for practical reasons, access cannot be given in the required form, but in an alternative manner, then the fee must be calculated according to the way that was first asked for by the requester [s 29(3) and (4)].

(d) If, in addition to a written reply to their request for the record, the requester wants to be informed about the decision in any other way, for example telephonically, this must be indicated [s 18(2)(e)].
Request on behalf of another person

If the request is made on behalf of another person, a requester must submit proof of the capacity in which he or she is making the request, to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer [s 18(2)(f)].

Request by people with disabilities

(a) If a requester is unable to read or write, or if he or she has a disability that prevents him or her from completing the prescribed form, then he or she can make a verbal request. The Information Officer will then complete the form on behalf of the requester and give a copy of the completed form to the requester [s 18(3)].

(b) The Information Officer will assist a requester to comply with the abovementioned requirements to request access to information, including referring a requester to another public body, if it is apparent that the request for information should have been made, to such other body [s 19].

Transfer of requests [s 20]

(a) The Information Officer of the DEA may transfer requests for records to another public body when:
   (i) The record is in the possession of that public body;
   (ii) the subject matter of the record is more closely associated with the functions of that public body;
   (iii) the record was created for that public body, or was received first by that body; or the record contains commercial information in which that public body has a greater commercial interest.

(b) In such instances the Information Officer of the DEA would have to transfer the request to the other public body as soon as is reasonably possible, but within 14 days after the request is received. If the DEA is in possession of the record which is being requested and its Information Officer considers it helpful to do so to enable the Information Officer of the other public body to deal with the request, the record or a copy of the record will be sent to that Information Officer.

(c) If a request for access to a record has been transferred, any period prescribed for the completion of an activity related to the request, has to be computed from the date it was received by the Information Officer to whom it was referred. All the relevant periods that apply to a request for information have to be adhered to.

Notification of transfer

(a) When a request for access has been transferred, the Information Officer making the transfer will immediately notify the requester of:

(i) The transfer;
(ii) the reasons for the transfer; and
(iii) the period within which the request must be dealt with [s 20(5)].

(b) The Information Officer will reasonably ensure that a record to which access has been requested is preserved until a decision is taken about access to the information [s 21].

Payment of Fees [s 22]

(a) Two types of fees are required to be paid in terms of PAIA, namely a request fee and an access fee. A requester who seeks access to a record containing personal information about him / herself is not required to pay the request fee. Any other requester who is not a personal requester, must pay the required request fee.

(b) The requester may lodge an internal appeal, where appropriate, or an application to the court against the tender or payment of the request fee.

(i) After the Information Officer has made a decision on the request, the requester must be notified of such a decision in the manner in which the requester wanted to be notified.

(ii) If the request is granted, then a further access fee must be paid for the search, preparation, reproduction and for any time that has exceeded the prescribed hours within which to search and prepare the record for disclosure.

(c) The fees that have been prescribed are contained in the Regulations promulgated in terms of the PAIA and must be paid by a requester before the DEA can make any records requested available to the requester. A copy of the schedule of prescribed fees is attached to this document as Annexure C.

(d) Fees are payable, during office hours, at the DEA’s finance directorate on the 9th floor of the North Tower of the Fedsure Forum Building, corner of Van der Walt and Pretorius Streets, Pretoria.

3.5 Categories of records held by the DEA [Section 14(1)(d)]

The records and information relevant to the functions and services of DEA can broadly be categorised as follows:

- Policies, strategies, delegations, government notices and legislation
- Press statements and speeches
- Departmental personnel records
- Departmental financial records
- Agendas and minutes of departmental meetings
- General administration information
- Departmental reports
- Internal circulars, internal memoranda, letters, cabinet memoranda
- Contracts and international agreements
- Branch specific information as described in paragraph 2.1.2 including:
  - Business plans
  - Strategy documents
  - Programme specific information
  - Permits and authorisations
  - Research documents

3.6 Notice of automatically available records [Section 14(1)(e)]

Notice of publication of section 15 list attached hereto as Annexure D

3.7 Services available to the public and how to gain access to them [Section 14(1)(f)]

The following services are delivered by the DEA:

- The publishing and implementation of legislation in the areas of Biodiversity, Protected Areas, Waste Management, Air Quality Management, Climate Change and Coastal Management
- Further expansion of our Parks system.
- The drafting of a National Biodiversity Strategy and Action Plan
- Expanding regional cooperation in environmental management through the establishment of Transfrontier Conservation Areas
• Assisting provincial and local government to clean up towns, cities and rural areas through proper waste management systems
• Addressing the air pollution problems in South Africa in terms of the National Environmental Management: Air Quality Act and its regulations and standards
• Addressing waste management problems in South Africa in terms of the National Environmental Management: Waste Act
• The development of a National Sustainable Development Strategy as part of the Medium Term Strategic Framework (MTEF)
• Implementation of the environment and culture component of the Expanded Public Works Programme
• The issuing of environmental authorisations, permits and licences for a variety of activities identified in terms of the various environmental management acts which provide the DEA with its legal mandate
• Enforcement of legislation

The public can gain access to the services provided by the DEA through the Department’s outreach programmes. Information on these programmes can be obtained-

• on the DEA website www.environment.gov.za;
• by contacting the DEA Call Centre number 086 111 2468 or DEA Call Center Email callcentre@environment.gov.za

3.8 Arrangements allowing for public involvement in formulation of policy, exercise of powers or performance of duties [Section 14(1)(g)]

The DEA has the following arrangements and / or provides the following opportunities for consultation, making representations or otherwise participating in or influencing the formulation of policy / legislation or the execution of the mandate of the Department:

• Public workshops;
• Publication of draft policy and legislation for public comment in the Government Gazette and on the DEA website;
• Stakeholder Forum workshops;
• Discussions / workshops with government departments;
• Oversight of public participation and other processes during the execution of EIA’s by developers; and
• the Administrative Appeal Process in terms of relevant legislation, for example, the National Environmental Management Act, 1998.

3.9 Remedies available in the event of non-compliance with the PAIA [Section 14(1)(h)]

Internal appeal [s 74]

A requester may lodge an internal appeal to the Minister against a decision of the Information Officer to refuse a request, against the requirement to pay request and access fees, against an extension of the period to deal with the request and against a decision to provide the information in a form other than in the particular form as requested.

Form [s 75(1)]

(a) The appeal must be lodged on the prescribed form that has been printed in the Regulations issued in terms of PAIA, or a form that substantially corresponds with that form. A copy of the form is attached to this document as Annexure B. Copies thereof are also available from the DEA’s office or from the Deputy Information Officers referred to in this document. The form is also available on the DEA’s website.

(b) The appeal must be lodged within 60 days or if notice to a third party is required in terms of s49(1)(b), within 30 days after notice has been given to the appellant of the decision appealed against, or if notice to the appellant is not required, after the decision was taken. The appeal must be sent to the address, fax number or email address of the Information Officer.

(c) An appellant must provide reasons for the internal appeal, how he or she wishes to be informed of the decision about the appeal and must pay the prescribed appeal fee (if any).

(d) The Minister will allow late lodging of an appeal only if the appellant’s motivation is credible. An appellant will be informed if his or her late appeal was disallowed.

Appeal fee [s 75(3)]

An appellant has to pay the prescribed appeal fee (if any). A decision on the internal appeal may be deferred until the appeal fee is paid.

Submission of an internal appeal to the Minister [s 75(4)]

The Information Officer must submit an internal appeal within 10 working days after receipt thereof to the Minister. The Minister must, at the same time, be provided with the reasons for the Information Officer’s decision against which the internal appeal was lodged and with the details of any third party that may be involved.

Third party [s 76]

(a) When the Minister is considering an internal appeal against the refusal of a request for access to the record of a third party, the disclosure of which may involve the unreasonable revelation of personal information, may harm the third party’s commercial or financial interests or would constitute a breach of confidence, the Minister must inform the third party about the appeal within 30 days after receipt thereof. The Minister must furnish the third party with a description of the contents of the appeal, details of the appellant and must state whether the Minister is of the opinion that it would be in the public interest that the information should be revealed. The third party then has 21 days to make a written representation to the Minister why the request for information should not be granted or, alternatively, give written consent for the disclosure of the record to the requester.

(b) When the Minister is considering an internal appeal against the granting of a request for access to information, the Minister must notify the requester concerned of the appeal within 30 days after receipt thereof. The third party has 21 days to make a written representation why the access to the record should be granted.

Notice of decision [s 77]

When deciding on an internal appeal, the Minister may confirm the original decision or make a new decision. This must be done within 30 days after receipt of the internal appeal, or within 5 working days after receiving written representation regarding the appeal. The Minister must immediately notify the appellant, every third party involved and the requester of the decision and must provide the reasons for the decision. If the Minister fails to comply with the above procedures and time frames for the consideration of an internal appeal, it will be regarded that that the Minister has dismissed the internal appeal.

Application to court [s 78]

The appellant, third party or requester will also be informed that they may apply to a competent court for review of the decision of the Minister on an internal appeal. Such application must be made within 30 days after the decision has been taken. However, a requester or third party may ONLY apply to a court for such a review after the requester or third party has exhausted the internal appeal procedure. The court may confirm, amend or set aside the decision on an internal appeal or may grant an interdict.
3.10 Availability of the manual [Section 14(3)]

This manual will be made available to the Human Rights Commission in accordance with paragraph 4(1) of the Regulations promulgated in terms of PAIA, and will be published on the DEA’s website (http://www.environment.gov.za). Copies of the manual will also be available at DEA’s offices for perusal. The prescribed fees apply when copies have to be made for requesters.
