To amend the National Environmental Management Act, 1998, so as to substitute a definition; and to provide for the prohibition, restriction or control of activities which are likely to have a detrimental effect on the environment; and to provide for matters connected therewith.

BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of the Republic of South Africa, as follows:—

Amendment of section 1 of Act 107 of 1998

1. Section 1 of the National Environmental Management Act, 1998 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), is hereby amended by the substitution for the definition of “activities” of the following definition:

“‘activities’ [when used in Chapter 5 means] includes policies, programmes, plans and projects;”.

Amendment of section 44 of Act 107 of 1998

2. Section 44 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the deletion in subsection (1) after paragraph (a) of the word “and” and the insertion of the following paragraph:

“(uA) prohibiting, restricting or controlling activities which are likely to have a detrimental effect on the environment; and”.

Amendment of long title of Act 107 of 1998

3. The long title of the principal Act is hereby amended by the insertion, before the concluding phrase, of the following phrase:

“to provide for the prohibition, restriction or control of activities which are likely to have a detrimental effect on the environment;”.

Short title and commencement

4. This Act is called the National Environmental Management Amendment Act, 2002, and, subject to section 35(3)(l) of the Constitution, must be regarded as having taken effect on the date on which the principal Act took effect.
MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE NATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT AMENDMENT BILL, 2002

1. There is uncertainty as to whether the National Environmental Management Act, 1998 (Act No. 107 of 1998), allows measures for the prevention of environmental degradation. In order to achieve legal certainty in this regard the Bill seeks to amend that Act so as to provide expressly for measures to prohibit, restrict or control activities which are likely to have a detrimental effect on the environment.

2. Provision is made for the Bill to take effect retrospectively from the date on which the principal Act took effect so as to save having to re-enact any such measures taken before the amendment. The retrospective effect of the amendment is made subject to section 35(3)(l) of the Constitution to make it clear that Parliament intends that no one can be convicted, in terms of such measures, for having done or omitted anything prior to the enactment of the Bill.
