Short title and commencement

31. This Act is called the National Environmental Management: Protected Areas Amendment Act, 2004, and takes effect on a date determined by the President by proclamation in the Gazette.
MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE NATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT: PROTECTED AREAS AMENDMENT BILL, 2004

OBJECTS AND PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

Together with this Amendment Bill, the National Environment Management: Protected Areas Act, 2003, provide for an over-all legal framework governing all protected areas in the Republic. Since the original National Environment Management: Protected Areas Bill, 2003, contained matters affecting both the national and provincial governments, that Bill had to be split into two bills to comply with the constitutionally determined procedures for the passage of such bills. The first Bill was dealt with in accordance with section 76 of the Constitution since it mainly affected provinces. The current Bill has to be dealt with in terms of section 75 of the Constitution since “national parks” and “marine resources” are excluded from the list of functional areas (Schedule 4 to the Constitution), in terms of which the national and provincial governments have concurrent jurisdiction.

Thus, this Bill seeks to complete the first Bill (currently the National Environment Management: Protected Areas Act, 2003), by inserting those provisions which deal with national parks and marine protected areas as part of the general scheme of protected areas of the Republic. Apart from seeking to effect technical insertions in the Act, the current Bill also covers matters such as the Minister of Environmental Affairs’ power to declare areas as national parks and to withdraw such declarations. Provisions providing for the continued existence of the current National Parks, and National Parks’ constitution, functions, personnel, finances etc. are being provided for. It is also proposed in the Bill to repeal those Acts which, because of the new legislative scheme, will become defunct.

EFFECT ON PROVINCES

As indicated in the Memorandum on the Objects of the first Bill, having one consolidated Protected Areas Act, would obviate the necessity for each province to legislate on the matter. The matters dealt with in this Bill fall within the competence of the national government and will not, as such affect provinces. However, provincial and local governments will have to take into account the existence of national parks and marine protected areas when developing a particular area.

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR STATE

The following was stated in the Memorandum on the Objects of the first Bill:

It is estimated that the implementation of the envisaged Act will cost the state in the region of R24 528 730 annually, of which R18 199 102 will be the cost to the provincial authorities. If the Act is implemented in a phased way over five years, the cost of the implementation will be of the order of R9 581 746 and will progressively increase over the five-year period until it peaks at approximately R24 528 730 in the fifth year.

CONSULTATION

As indicated in the Memorandum on the Objects of the first Bill, a consolidated version of the Protected Areas Bill was published for general comment. Various consultations were held and some 66 representations were received. These comments were analysed and taken into account, where applicable.

PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

The State Law Advisers and the Department of Environmental Affairs and Tourism are of the view that this Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure established by section 75 of the Constitution since it contains no provision to which the procedure set out in section 74 or 76 of the Constitution applies.
